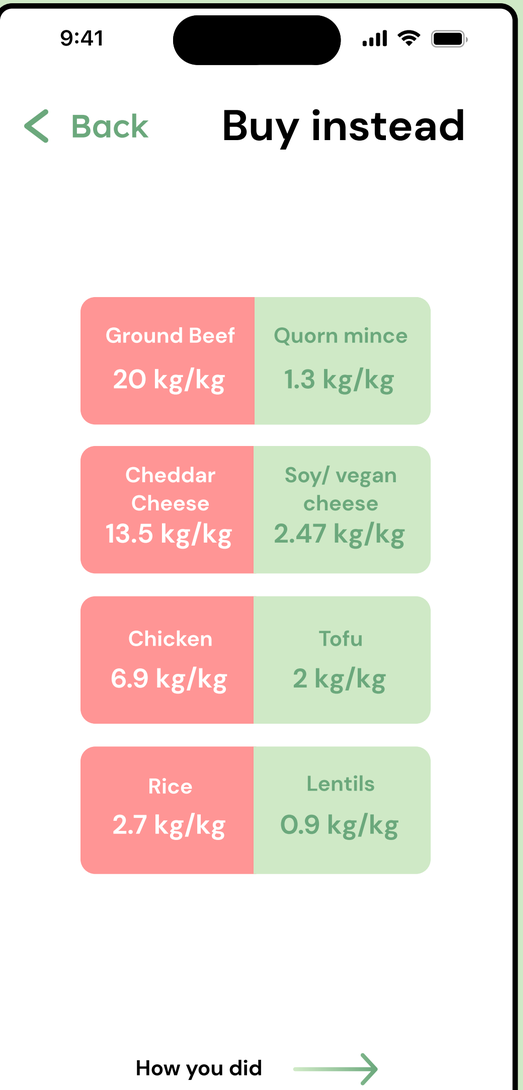
06 providing alternatives



Once the user receives their receipt they can see how to improve their items. This involves showing them alternate items that typically require less CO_2 to be produced.

This makes it very easy for the user to choose greener products.